

Explanation of “hybrid transport”

- This is an uncommon setup where ONE (1) MLS wants to provide direct data for co-mingling while other MLSs are okay with letting their data be transited, and then co-mingled.
- In this scenario the Vendor gets each listing only once and combines the data.
- MLSs with this product available in their market use the same vendor database/technology stack to access the common data.

